

CHANCELLOR'S POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS IN AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Under the Chancellor's Postdoctoral Fellowship Program at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, the Native American House and American Indian Studies Program seek two Postdoctoral Fellows for the 2008-2009 academic year. This fellowship program provides a stipend, close working association with faculty at the university, and assistance in furthering the fellow's development as a productive scholar. Applicants should have an ongoing research project that promises to make a notable contribution to American Indian and Indigenous Studies. While fellows will concentrate primarily on their research, they may choose to teach one course in American Indian Studies and participate in the activities of the American Indian Studies Program and the Native American House. The Fellowship stipend for 2008-2009 is $42,000, with benefits, and, in addition, $5,000 will be provided for research, travel, and related expenses. Candidates must have completed Ph.D. requirements by August 15, 2008. Preference will be given to applicants who have completed their degrees in the past five years. The fellowship appointment period is for one year from August 15, 2008 to August 15, 2009.

Candidates should submit a curriculum vitae, a thorough description of the research project to be undertaken during the fellowship year, two samples of their scholarly writing, and two letters of recommendation to Professor LeAnne Howe, Director, American Indian Studies, University of Illinois, 1204 West Nevada Street, Urbana, IL 61801-3818. Applications received by January 22, 2008 will receive fullest consideration and review will continue until the fellowships are filled.
