

American Indian Education Professional Development Workshop

"The most comprehensive workshop on Indian Education and Indian law that I've ever attended"— Jason Firestone, Indian Education Program Coordinator, Jefferson County Public Schools

Reinhardt & Associates® is pleased to offer an intensive professional development workshop on American Indian Education focused on:

- Conceptualizing American Indian Education
- American Indian Education Law and Policy
- Evaluating American Indian Curriculum Materials
- Developing Standards Based American Indian Interdisciplinary Thematic Units
- American Indian Education and Technology

The AIEPDW can be customized to fit local preferences and schedules. Costs are based on group size and are negotiable based on circumstances.
